Foe The Notorious South Sacramento Rapper, King Lavish D, who is currently serving an undisclosed sentence, have decided to give up all of the game that he has learned over the past sixteen years. This book is not only gripping to your imagination. It takes your feelings on an emotional ride. Lavish D did not hold back any information regarding his life experience and how he overcame many obstacles. He talks about things that we all have been dying to know about and he do not sugar coat any of it. He speaks on the times he was broke without anyone by his side to help him get back on his feet, but as soon as they see him flashing money, they are "reachable." Will he tell us what happened to the 20,000,000? Lavish D went all the way out with this mind blowing book. He even talks about cocaine and how it could mess you up for life. He discuss how his heart got broke by the woman who was supposed to have his child and the man he looked up to, at the time. Surprisingly, he speaks about one of his close friends that robbed him. Will he ever comfort this so called friend?
