These Legs Were Made for Walking Wayetu Moore

Through chaos and confusion, the Moore family's struggles and defeats are inevitable. In this story, young Wayetu Moore speaks of the cold experiences of war and heartache in the eyes of a child. When her family is separated and she has nothing but her faith, she must now somehow find the courage to fear nothing. In the prime of the Liberian Civil War, Moore tells the story that inspires millions. All along her journey you will find yourself rooting for the family that walked their way to freedom. By the end of the book, you will be jumping and shouting to a newfound feeling - faith!
