Seasons in the Sky: A Year in New Hampshire's White Mountains Philip R. Knight

For eight months, Phil Knight was the live-in winter caretaker of a remote mountain hostel in New Hampshire's White Mountains. This is the tale of a year spent exploring and working in the magical mountains of northern New England, known for some of the worst weather in the world and some of the most rugged hiking trails anywhere. Join the author as he lives with the mountains' misty moods, filling his days with strenuous adventures, sun, stars and storm, incredible mountain scenery, and close companionship.
