The Story of a Sailor Therese J. Roberts

Life can be trying, life can be adventurous, life can be beautiful. Most importantly, life is fulfilling when lived for God. Captain Will has spent all his life sailing the seas. A longing in his heart inspires him to take a journey in pursuit of a desired dream. He faces many great adventures, including the three difficult tests that will determine whether he reaches his final destination. Will the captain and his men find the island they hope for? Or will the sailors discover something very different from what they expected? Written entirely as a poem, this story is enjoyable for all ages. It is also composed as an allegory meant for all those who are seeking God.
