‘A book to start your heart and feet beating for the road’

The Times

With its stories of strolling, poems about pavement-pounding and wonderings on wandering, this is the indispensable collection for the flâneur and the Rambler – and everyone in between.

Take a turn with Jane Austen, stride side by side with Colm Tóibín, let restless William Wordsworth lead you through brook and road before a detour with Stella Gibbons to the park. Whether mountaineering with Mark Twain or visiting Oxford Street with Julian Barnes – be sure to take this anthology with you on your ambulations.

With a new foreword by Robert Macfarlane.

Previously published with the title The Vintage Book of Walking
