The Gospel According to Emily Vally M. Sharpe

In a memoir, acclaimed author Emily Carpenter reveals the inside story about her son Andrew, and the events that would change her life and the lives of everyone he touched. As she says in the Prologue, "One would assume that thirty years would provide enough distance from an event to make its impact less jarring on the psyche. But if it has to do with one of your children, all bets are off..." An exploration or "imagining" of what it might have been like if Jesus had come into the modern world and Mary, his mother, had written the story of his life from her point of view.
