Managing Change in the Nonprofit Sector, 7 X 10: Lessons from the Evolution of Five Independent Research Libraries (Jossey Bass Nonprofit and Public Management Series) Jed I. Bergman, William G. Bowen, Thomas I. Nygren

This text presents a historical review of five of the private libraries in the United States. In addition to presenting the historical information, the author analyzes how these five non-profit organizations managed the pressures of change faced by all nonprofit organizations. He examines the financial pressures, new demands for access and democratization, and the common trends the organizations faced while coping with change.
