The Coffin (Nightmare Hall) Diane Hoh

A twisted psychopath carries out the ultimate revenge . . .

Salem University violinist Tanner Leo can't wait for her strict psychiatrist father to leave for Hawaii so she can have the house all to herself. But after he leaves, Tanner finds that she is not, in fact, alone: She has a madman for company.

It starts when Tanner comes home from school to discover the housekeeper gone, her pocketbook suspiciously left behind. Someone else is in the house . . . someone who viciously attacks Tanner. She wakes up in her father's soundproof music room, a stranger in a terrifying Halloween mask sitting across from her.

A prisoner in a silent torture chamber, Tanner frantically tries to figure out who her assailant is and why he's locked her in. But the worst is yet to come. As her friends search for her, Tanner must find an escape hatch—before a monster with a familiar face buries her alive in a coffin made just for her.
