Trying to woo a girl; not so much of an age difference between us as man and woman. After trying within myself for a while, I decided to propose to her in writing. . . She voiced her concerns to me regarding my decision to write to her instead though. I will never forget the day I went to personally give her this piece which was inspired by a music I listened to over the radio back then. . . That was back in the days and I have since grown up, however, this makes an interesting read anyday anytime and I have decided to put it up for your readership. Any questions can be thrown at me at the about the author page and I will respond speedily

This work is culled from my Poetic Memoirs—"Poetic Memoirs of a Young Son" where there is even more.
