Paul, Messenger of Grace

Kenneth Schenck

Paul, Messenger of Grace Kenneth Schenck

Some say he seized onto the simple faith of Jesus and corrupted it. But most see him as a humble servant who was only carrying out the mission of his King. Who was this long-ago tentmaker and missionary, and what do his life and writings have to teach me today?

Author Kenneth Schenck bridges time and culture to bring you Paul—Messenger of Grace. Immerse yourself in the world of one of history's most polarizing figures to learn about his background, his conversion, his missionary journeys, and his letters. But this is not just a history book; each chapter concludes with the author's reflections about how Paul's life and letters can help shape our own lives.

This book covers the earlier part of Paul's life and ministry including the Bible books of 1Thessalonians, 1 and 2 Corinthians, Galatians, and Philippians. To learn from Paul's later life and letters see Paul—Soldier of Peace.
