Pimp London: The Guide

Pimp London: The Guide

Within hours after hitting the streets, the bimonthly edition of "PIMP" is already in the hands of Britain's cool hunters looking to find out about the latest guerrilla artist, fashion style, underground club or hot new band. Now, the staff of "PIMP" offer unrivalled access to one of the world's most exciting cities. For young style-setters on the move who want to find the coolest art, music and fashion haunts in London, the "PIMP" guide book offers immediate knowledge of 200 of the best boutiques, art spaces, cafes, bars and clubs in the city frequented by the most discerning hipsters. The book guides you straight to the heart of the most exciting and hard-to-find spots, from the underground music hangouts and boutiques to the hidden art spaces run by notorious graffiti artists. Available in a portable format, "PIMP London: The Guide" is an insightful, informative and definitive guide to the capital city produced by a magazine team who are an integral part of the scenes they are writing about. Along with cutting edge art direction, maps and travel tips, "PIMP London: The Guide", like the magazine itself, includes works by infamous local street artists and fascinating interviews. As cool as it is useful, this is one travel guide that won't stay hidden in your backpack for long.
